Acts 16:9-15 (NIV)

<sup>9</sup> During the night Paul had a vision of a man of Macedonia standing and begging him, "Come over to Macedonia and help us."

<sup>10</sup> After Paul had seen the vision, we got ready at once to leave for Macedonia, concluding that God had called us to preach the gospel to them.

Lydia's Conversion in Philippi

<sup>11</sup> From Troas we put out to sea and sailed straight for Samothrace, and the next day we went on to Neapolis.

<sup>12</sup> From there we traveled to Philippi, a Roman colony and the leading city of that district of Macedonia. And we stayed there several days.

<sup>13</sup> On the Sabbath we went outside the city gate to the river, where we expected to find a place of prayer. We sat down and began to speak to the women who had gathered there.

<sup>14</sup> One of those listening was a woman from the city of Thyatira named Lydia, a dealer in purple cloth. She was a worshiper of God. The Lord opened her heart to respond to Paul's message.

<sup>15</sup> When she and the members of her household were baptized, she invited us to her home. "If you consider me a believer in the Lord," she said, "come and stay at my house." And she persuaded us.

John 5:1-9 (NIV)

The Healing at the Pool

<sup>5</sup> Some time later, Jesus went up to Jerusalem for one of the Jewish festivals.

<sup>2</sup> Now there is in Jerusalem near the Sheep Gate a pool, which in Aramaic is called Bethesda and which is surrounded by five covered colonnades.

<sup>6</sup> When Jesus saw him lying there and learned that he had been in this condition for a long time, he asked him, "Do you want to get well?"

<sup>7</sup> "Sir," the invalid replied, "I have no one to help me into the pool when the water is stirred. While I am trying to get in, someone else goes down ahead of me."

<sup>8</sup> Then Jesus said to him, "Get up! Pick up your mat and walk."

<sup>9</sup> At once the man was cured; he picked up his mat and walked.

The day on which this took place was a Sabbath,

He went walking and leaping and praising God
Walking and leaping and praising God
In the name of Jesus Christ
Of Nazareth, rise up and walk

"Listen to your heart, it will guide you on the right path."

Psalms 67 (NIV)

<sup>1</sup> May God be gracious to us and bless us and make his face shine on us—

<sup>2</sup> so that your ways may be known on earth, your salvation among all nations.

<sup>3</sup> May the peoples praise you, God; may all the peoples praise you.

<sup>4</sup> May the nations be glad and sing for joy, for you rule the peoples with equity and guide the nations of the earth.

<sup>5</sup> May the peoples praise you, God; may all the peoples praise you.

<sup>6</sup> The land yields its harvest; God, our God, blesses us.

<sup>7</sup> May God bless us still, so that all the ends of the earth will fear him.

Revelations 21:10,21:22-27, 22:1-5 (NIV)

<sup>10</sup> And he carried me away in the Spirit to a mountain great and high, and showed me the Holy City, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God.

<sup>22</sup> I did not see a temple in the city, because the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are its temple.

<sup>23</sup> The city does not need the sun or the moon to shine on it, for the glory of God gives it light, and the Lamb is its lamp.

<sup>24</sup> The nations will walk by its light, and the kings of the earth will bring their splendour into it.

<sup>25</sup> On no day will its gates ever be shut, for there will be no night there.

<sup>26</sup> The glory and honour of the nations will be brought into it.

<sup>27</sup> Nothing impure will ever enter it, nor will anyone who does what is shameful or deceitful, but only those whose names are written in the Lamb's book of life.

Eden Restored

<sup>22</sup> Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, as clear as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb

<sup>2</sup> down the middle of the great street of the city. On each side of the river stood the tree of life, bearing twelve crops of fruit, yielding its fruit every month. And the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations.

<sup>3</sup> No longer will there be any curse. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in the city, and his servants will serve him.

<sup>4</sup> They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads.

<sup>5</sup> There will be no more night. They will not need the light of a lamp or the light of the sun, for the Lord God will give them light. And they will reign for ever and ever.

Meg's Musings

The reading from John 14 talks about the coming of the Holy Spirit. It promises that the Holy Spirit will teach us everything, and remind us of all that Jesus taught.

That is a pretty amazing promise!

Then why don't we hear it all, and "know it all"? I am certain that it is not because Jesus reneged on his promise. So what other explanation can there be?

We hear clearly the strident, repetitive election talk - we often try to "tune out" to it. So why don't we hear the Holy Spirit?

Could it be that we don't listen to the Holy Spirit in the right way?

To hear the Holy Spirit we must listen with our souls and with our hearts. Only then will we hear what the Holy Spirit has to say to us.

That listening takes practice and patience. Are you ready to spend time listening with your heart?

Blessings from Meg

John 14:23-29 (NIV)

<sup>23</sup> Jesus replied, "Anyone who loves me will obey my teaching. My Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them.

<sup>24</sup> Anyone who does not love me will not obey my teaching. These words you hear are not my own; they belong to the Father who sent me.

<sup>25</sup> "All this I have spoken while still with you.

<sup>26</sup> But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have said to you.

<sup>27</sup> Peace I leave with you; my peace I give you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled and do not be afraid.

<sup>28</sup> "You heard me say, 'I am going away and I am coming back to you.' If you loved me, you would be glad that I am going to the Father, for the Father is greater than I.

<sup>29</sup> I have told you now before it happens, so that when it does happen you will believe.

Peace of Mind and Heart

I am leaving you with a gift—peace of mind and heart. And the peace I give is a gift the world cannot give. So don't be troubled or afraid. John 14:27 (NLT)

"Spirituality is not to be learned by flight from the world, or by running away from things, or by turning solitary and going apart from the world.
