Joshua 5:9-12 (NIV)

⁹ Then the LORD said to Joshua, "Today I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from you." So the place has been called Gilgal to this day.

¹⁰ On the evening of the fourteenth day of the month, while camped at Gilgal on the plains of Jericho, the Israelites celebrated the Passover.

¹¹ The day after the Passover, that very day, they ate some of the produce of the land: unleavened bread and roasted grain.

¹² The manna stopped the day after they ate this food from the land; there was no longer any manna for the Israelites, but that year they ate the produce of Canaan.

2 Corinthians 5:16-21 (NIV)

¹⁶ So from now on we regard no one from a worldly point of view. Though we once regarded Christ in this way, we do so no longer.

¹⁷ Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: The old has gone, the new is here!

¹⁸ All this is from God, who reconciled us to himself through Christ and gave us the ministry of reconciliation:

¹⁹ that God was reconciling the world to himself in Christ, not counting people's sins against them. And he has committed to us the message of reconciliation.

²⁰ We are therefore Christ's ambassadors, as though God were making his appeal through us. We implore you on Christ's behalf: Be reconciled to God.

²¹ God made him who had no sin to be sin for us, so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

Psalms 32 (NIV)

² Blessed is the one whose sin the LORD does not count against them and in whose spirit is no deceit.

³ When I kept silent, my bones wasted away through my groaning all day long.

⁴ For day and night your hand was heavy on me; my strength was sapped as in the heat of summer.

⁵ Then I acknowledged my sin to you and did not cover up my iniquity.

I said, "I will confess my transgressions to the LORD." And you forgave the guilt of my sin.

⁶ Therefore let all the faithful pray to you while you may be found; surely the rising of the mighty waters will not reach them.

⁷ You are my hiding place; you will protect me from trouble and surround me with songs of deliverance.

⁸ I will instruct you and teach you in the way you should go;

I will counsel you with my loving eye on you.

⁹ Do not be like the horse or the mule, which have no understanding but must be controlled by bit and bridle or they will not come to you.

¹⁰ Many are the woes of the wicked, but the LORD's unfailing love surrounds the one who trusts in him.

¹¹ Rejoice in the LORD and be glad, you righteous; sing, all you who are upright in heart!

Being entirely honest with oneself is a good exercise.

IN OUR PRAYERS

- We pray for people in Australia's north who are cleaning up after the cyclones.
- We also pray for everyone who missed out on receiving rain from the cyclones - many people were hoping that the rain would make its way further south.
- We thank God that John Murray is recovering well after a stroke; he is now home from hospital.
- We pray for safety for Doug and Marg as they travel to Sydney to participate in the Royal Easter Show.

Meg's Musings

It is the time of year when we could normally expect to see leaves starting to change from green to gold, orange and red.

This year, however, the leaves are dropping from the trees whilst they are still green.

The poplars are quickly becoming denuded, without a glimpse of yellow. Because of the lack of rain, nature is "out of synch".

There are times in our lives when something is lacking.

Sometimes that is caused by health issues, or through being over-tired.

Sometimes it can also be because we are spiritually drained... when we haven't chosen to spend time in prayer, or when we haven't spent time with Christian friends.

Just like the trees, our lives can show the signs of being stressed and depleted.

Turning to God for replenishment in those times is a guaranteed "fix".

Blessings from Meg

The Parable of the Lost Son

- ¹¹ "There was a man who had two sons.
- ¹² The younger one said to his father, 'Father, give me my share of the estate.' So he divided his property between them.
- ¹³ "Not long after that, the younger son got together all he had, set off for a distant country and there squandered his wealth in wild living.
- ¹⁴ After he had spent everything, there was a severe famine in that whole country, and he began to be in need.
- ¹⁵ So he went and hired himself out to a citizen of that country, who sent him to his fields to feed pigs.
- ¹⁶ He longed to fill his stomach with the pods that the pigs were eating, but no one gave him anything.
- ¹⁷ "When he came to his senses, he said, 'How many of my father's hired servants have food to spare, and here I am starving to death!
- ¹⁸ I will set out and go back to my father and say to him: Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you.
- ¹⁹ I am no longer worthy to be called your son; make me like one of your hired servants.'
- ²⁰ So he got up and went to his father.
- "But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him and was filled with compassion for him; he ran to his son, threw his arms around him and kissed him.
- ²¹ "The son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven and against you. I am no longer worthy to be called your son.'
- ²² "But the father said to his servants, 'Quick! Bring the best robe and put it on him. Put a ring on his finger and sandals on his feet.
- ²³ Bring the fattened calf and kill it. Let's have a feast and celebrate.
- ²⁴ For this son of mine was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.' So they began to celebrate.
- ²⁵ "Meanwhile, the older son was in the field. When he came near the house, he heard music and dancing.
- ²⁶ So he called one of the servants and asked him what was going on.
- ²⁷ 'Your brother has come,' he replied, 'and your father has killed the fattened calf because he has him back safe and sound.'
- ²⁸ "The older brother became angry and refused to go in. So his father went out and pleaded with him.
- ²⁹ But he answered his father, 'Look! All these years I've been slaving for you and never disobeyed your orders. Yet you never gave me even a young goat so I could celebrate with my friends. ³⁰ But when this son of yours who has squandered your property with prostitutes comes home, you kill the fattened calf for him!'
- ³¹ "'My son,' the father said, 'you are always with me, and everything I have is yours.
- ³² But we had to celebrate and be glad, because this this brother of yours was dead and is alive again; he was lost and is found.'"
