Romans 5:1-5 (NIV) Peace and Hope

5 Therefore, since we have been justified through faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, ² through whom we have gained access by faith into this grace in which we now stand. And we boast in the hope of the glory of God.

³ Not only so, but we also glory in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance; ⁴ perseverance, character; and character, hope.

⁵ And hope does not put us to shame, because God's love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit, who has been given to us.

John 16:12-15 (NIV)

¹² "I have much more to say to you, more than you can now bear.

¹³ But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all the truth. He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will tell you what is yet to come.

¹⁴ He will glorify me because it is from me that he will receive what he will make known to you.

¹⁵ All that belongs to the Father is mine. That is why I said the Spirit will receive from me what he will make known to you."

Other Lectionary Reading for this week:

Proverbs 8:1-4, 22-31

Psalms 8 (NIV)

how majestic is your name in all the earth!
You have set your glory
in the heavens.

² Through the praise of children and infants you have established a stronghold against your enemies,
to silence the foe and the avenger.

³ When I consider your heavens,
the work of your fingers,
the moon and the stars,
which you have set in place,

⁴ what is mankind that you are mindful of
them,

⁵ human beings that you care for them?
⁵ You have made them a little lower than the angels^l
and crowned them with glory and honour.

⁶ You made them rulers over the works of
your hands;
you put everything under their feet:

⁷ all flocks and herds,
and the animals of the wild,

⁸ the birds in the sky,
and the fish in the sea,
all that swim the paths of the seas.

⁹ LORD, our Lord,
how majestic is your name in all the earth!

Beautiful painting!
Perfect message!

"Each woman carries her responsibility differently.

Don't compare."

IN OUR PRAYERS

- We pray for the people of Ukraine, as the war drags on, and more and more people are injured and displaced.
- Our prayers for Janet, Kevin and their family. Janet's mum passed away on Wednesday.
- We pray for the Fenwick family. Beulah's daughter-in-law, Margaret, passed away last Tuesday. We pray for Kevin, Margaret's husband, and their children.
- We pray for those in hospital at the moment; especially Shirley Whitten, Joyce Dowsett and John Murray.
- We continue to pray for the Nowland family, as they grieve the loss of Judy.
- We pray for those from our congregation in nursing homes; Phyll Bylund, Patrick Johnston and Noreen Dobbie.

Trinity Sunday

But when he, the Spirit of truth, comes, he will guide you into all the truth. He will not speak on his own; he will speak only what he hears, and he will tell you what is yet to come. John 16:13 (NIV)

Meg's Musings

Psalm 8 is a "big picture" glimpse of God. It gives praise for the moon and the stars, the animals and birds.

It is important that we see, and appreciate creation as being God-given.

However, there are times when the small things in life can absorb our attention, and equally deserve our praise and thanks.

A bird singing, a child playing or a single flower in bloom can gain our attention, and delight us.

Sunshine on a cold day can be such a comfort.

A good nights' sleep after a tiring day can change our focus, and restore our body.

Treatment which eases our pain can help us to cope with life, and to regain perspective.

The smallest things, such the touch of a hand, or a smile can change our day.

Let's choose to reach out to others in those small ways. It may even help someone to realise that God is there for them, and with them.

Blessing from Meg

If you can lie down at night knowing in your heart that you made someone's day just a little bit better, you know you had a good day. ~ anon

Your Best

If you always try your best
 Then you'll never have to wonder
 About what you could have done
 If you'd summoned all your thunder.

And if your best
 Was not as good
 As you hoped it would be,
 You still could say,
 "I gave today
 All that I had in me."
